255-X-3-.01 Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC).

(1) General. All applicants must meet the qualifications specified in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(1) through (6).

(2) Education.

(a) Prior to September 1, 2003, a minimum master's degree program in counseling is defined as a minimum of thirty (30) semester hours or forty-five (45) quarter hours at a regionally accredited college or university (e.g. Southern Association of Colleges and Schools).

Beginning September 1, 2003, a master's degree in counseling (or its substantial equivalent) is defined as a minimum of forty-eight (48) graduate semester hours or seventy-two (72) graduate quarter hours at a regionally accredited college or university (e.g. Southern Association of Colleges and Schools).

(b) All applicants shall have a master's degree from a CACREP (Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs) or CORE (Commission on Rehabilitation and Education) accredited program, or the content equivalent of CACREP or CORE. Content equivalent is minimally defined as graduate course work in each of the following:

1. Counseling Theory: Includes studies of basic theories, principles and techniques of counseling and their application to professional counseling settings.

2. Human Growth and Development: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels; normal and abnormal human behavior; personality theory; life-span theory; and learning theory within cultural context.

3. Social and Multicultural Foundations: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of societal changes and trends; human roles; societal subgroups; social and mores and interaction patterns; multicultural and pluralistic trends; differing lifestyles; and major societal concerns including stress, person abuse, substance abuse, discrimination and methods for alleviating these concerns.

4. The Helping Relationship: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of philosophic bases of helping processes; counseling theories and their applications; basic and advanced helping skills; consultation theories and their applications; client and helper self-understanding and self-development; and facilitation of client or consultee change.

5. Group Dynamics, Processing and Counseling: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of group development, dynamics, and counseling theories; group leadership styles; basic and advanced group counseling methods and skills; and other group approaches.

6. Lifestyle and Career Development: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of career development theories; occupational and educational information sources and systems; career and leisure counseling, guidance, and education; lifestyle and career decision-making; career development program planning, resources, and effectiveness evaluation.

7. Appraisal of Individuals: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of group and individual educational and psychometric theories and approaches to appraisal; data and information gathering methods; validity and reliability; psychometric statistics; factors influencing appraisals; and use of appraisal results in helping processes. Additionally, the specific ability to administer and interpret tests and inventories to assess abilities, interests, and identify career options is important.

8. Research and Evaluation: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of types of research; basic statistics; research-report development; research implementation; program evaluation; needs assessment; publication of research information; and ethical and legal considerations.

9. Professional Orientation: Includes studies that provide a broad understanding of professional roles and functions; professional goals and objectives; professional organizations and associations; professional history and trends; ethical and legal standards; professional preparation standards; and professional credentialing.

10. Practicum: Provides for the development of individual and group counseling skills under supervision. The practicum must be taken through a regionally accredited institution, for a total of one hundred (100) clock hours. A minimum of forty (40) clock hours must be direct service work with clients. At least 80% of the direct service work with clients in the practicum must be in counseling sessions with clients. Assessment activities with clients may not account for more than 20% of the direct services in the practicum. A minimum of one (1) clock hour per week must be of individual supervision by program faculty, and a minimum of one and one-half (1 1/2) clock hours per week must be group supervision.

11. Internship: Provides an opportunity for the student to perform all the activities that a regularly employed staff member in the setting would be expected to perform. The internship must be a minimum of six hundred (600) clock hours, to include: a minimum of two hundred and forty (240) hours of direct service work with clients. At least 80% of the direct service work with clients in the internship must be in counseling sessions with clients. Assessment activities with clients may not account for more than 20% of the direct services in the internship. A minimum of (1) clock hour per week must be of individual supervision by program faculty, and a minimum of one and one-half (1 ½) clock hours per week must be group supervision.

(3) Experience.

(a) The experience requirements for applicants are set out in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(5), and in Section 255-X-3-.02 of the rules and regulations of the board. All educational requirements for licensure must be completed prior to accruing post-master's supervised experience and/or post master's academic work used to substitute for post-master's supervised experience. No accrual of required supervised experience shall occur until the Associate Licensed Counselor license has been issued.

(b) Beginning August 1, 2000, applicants must have three thousand (3000) hours of supervised experience in professional counseling with Board approved supervision.

1. Three thousand (3000) hours of required supervised experience in professional counseling acceptable to the Board must include the following minimum requirements:

(i) Two thousand, two hundred and fifty (2,250) hours will be direct counseling service with individuals, couples, families or groups;

(ii) Seven hundred and fifty (750) hours will be indirect counseling services to include, but not limited to, documentation, consultation, referral development, etc.

2. An applicant may subtract one thousand hours of the required professional experience for every 15 graduate semester hours of 22.5 quarter hours obtained beyond the master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university, provided that such hours are clearly related to the field of professional counseling, are focused on increasing knowledge and use of skills in the private practice of counseling in one or more of the following areas: counseling theory and practice, human growth and development, social and multicultural foundations, helping relationships, group dynamics, lifestyle and career development, appraisal of individuals, research and evaluation, or professional orientation, and are acceptable to the Board. However, in no case may the applicant have less than one thousand hours of the required professional experience. Formal graduate course work utilized as continuing education for licensure renewal cannot also be utilized as a substitute for supervised experience required to become a Licensed Professional Counselor. Formal graduate course work used as a substitution for supervised experience to become a Licensed Professional Counselor cannot also be utilized as continuing education for licensure renewal.

3. An applicant who is able to subtract one thousand hours of the required professional experience must have two thousand hours of supervised professional experience.

4. Two thousand hours of the required supervised professional experience must include the following minimum requirements:

(i) Fifteen hundred (1,500) hours will be direct counseling service with individuals, couples, families or groups;

(ii) Five hundred (500) hours will be indirect counseling services to include, but not limited to, documentation, consultation, referral development, etc.

5. An applicant who is able to subtract two thousand hours of the required professional experience must have one thousand hours of supervised professional experience.

6. One thousand hours of the required supervised professional experience must include the following minimum requirements:

(i) Seven hundred and fifty (750) hours will be direct counseling service with individuals, couples, families or groups;

(ii) Two hundred and fifty (250) hours will be indirect counseling services to include, but not limited to, documentation, consultation, referral development, etc.

(4) Examination. All applicants not falling within the provisions of Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-23, must demonstrate professional competence in counseling by passing an examination as provided in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(6).

(5) Character and Professional Integrity. All applicants shall furnish the requisite number of references and endorsements required by the application form adopted by the Board pursuant to Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7.

255-X-3-.02 Associate Licensed Counselor (ALC).

(1) General. All applicants must meet the qualifications set out in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(1) through (4).

(2) Education.

(a) All applicants must meet the educational requirements set out in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(4).

(b) All applicants must meet the educational requirements set forth in Rule 255-X-3-.01(2).

(3) Character and Professional Integrity. All applicants must supply references and endorsement as required by the application forms adopted by the Board pursuant to Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7.

(4) Plan of Supervision.

(a) Applicants for associate licensed counselor must furnish to the Board, on a form approved by the Board, a plan for supervision by a Supervising Counselor. The hours of supervision listed in the plan for supervision are to be provided by the Supervising Counselor whose signature appears on the document. The Supervising Counselor must personally provide to the ALC a minimum of one hundred (100) total hours of supervision annually to include a minimum of fifty (50) of one-to-one, face-to-face, personal individual supervision. Supervision provided for a period of time less than a full year must be a minimum weekly average of two (2) hours which must include at least fifty percent (50%) of one-to-one, face-to-face personal individual supervision.

The number of direct counseling service hours accrued by an ALC toward licensure requirements shall not exceed fifteen hundred (1500) hours annually.

All supervision of an ALC is to be provided by the Supervising Counselor identified on the license of the ALC. Concurrent supervision is supervision of the direct service provided by an ALC by more than one supervisor for the same clients in order to meet licensure or certification requirements of an entity other than the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling. Concurrent supervision of an ALC's service to the same clients by more than one supervisor is prohibited by the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling.

(b) Applicants must comply with the following regulations:

1. The supervising LPC must submit the proposal for the plan of supervision to the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling.

2. A supervision progress report, on a form provided by the Board, must be submitted annually, by the Supervising Counselor whose name appears on the plan for supervision required in 255-X-3-.02(4)(a). Annual supervision progress reports must verify a minimum of one hundred (100) total hours of supervision for that year, at least fifty (50) hours of which must be in one-to-one, face-to-face personal individual supervision. Any supervision progress reports representing less than a full year of supervised experience must verify a minimum weekly average of two (2) hours of supervision for that period, at least fifty (50%) of which must be one-to-one, face-to-face, personal individual supervision. Only counseling experience supervised by the Supervising Counselor whose name appears on the ALC's license may accrue toward meeting the supervised experience requirements in 255-X-3-.01(3)(b).

Annual supervision progress reports shall be submitted to the board no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration date of the previous ALC license. A Supervising Counselor must submit a final supervision progress report to the board upon the termination of supervision of the ALC for any reason. Any disputes concerning the content of supervision progress reports must be resolved by the ALC and Supervising Counselor before the submission of the report.

3. Both the Supervising Counselor and the ALC have responsibility for maintaining ongoing records of supervision sessions and records of direct and indirect counseling service. The records are to be available for review by both parties to verify data contained in supervision progress reports. These records must also be available for examination by the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling for a period of three years following termination of the ALC's supervision.

4. The Supervising Counselor has clinical authority concerning the functioning of the ALC in order to maintain ultimate responsibility for the welfare of every client.

5. All Supervising Counselor must establish and exercise oversight of client care with all clients of ALCs whom they supervise to plan effective service delivery procedures. The progress of the practice shall be monitored to ensure that full professional responsibility and liability will be accepted by the supervising LPC for all services rendered. The supervising LPC shall be available for emergency consultation and intervention.

6. The Supervising Counselor shall establish and maintain a level of supervisory contact consistent with the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice approved by the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling and be fully accountable in the event that professional, ethical, or legal issues are raised. The ALC shall have read and shall be bound by the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice.

7. Associate Licensed Counselors performing counseling services must be under the exclusive supervision of the Supervising Counselor required in 255-X-3-.02(4) (a).

8. The practices of the ALC shall be commensurate with the skills of the ALC and all practice procedures shall be planned in consultation with the Supervising Counselor.

9. Associate Licensed Counselors performing counseling services or announcing such services to the public or professional community shall clarify that they are under the supervision of the Supervising Counselor. In performing or announcing counseling services in which the term, or any derivative of the term, "Associate Licensed Counselor" is employed, such descriptions must be offered in the following manner: "John Doe, M.A., Associate Licensed Counselor under the supervision of Jane Smith, Ph.D., Supervising Counselor." Activities that are not performance or announcement of counseling services (e.g., presentations, etc.) shall not require such a description.

10. The Supervising Counselor is to notify the Board immediately in writing of any change in the status of the ALC's supervision or in the event supervision cannot begin upon the issue of the ALC's license. The Supervising Counselor must submit to the Board a final supervision report, on a form approved by the Board, when the ALC has accrued the required number of supervised experience hours or if the approved plan of supervision is terminated for any reason.

11. After meeting the requirements specified in subdivisions (5) and (6) of Section 34-8A-7 of the Code of Ala. 1975, the Associate Licensed Counselor must petition the Board in writing to be reviewed for licensure as a licensed professional counselor.

(5) Examination Option. Applicants for associate licensed counselor may opt for examination at the completion of their educational requirement as set out in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(4), or they may defer examination until completion of the experience requirement set out in Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8A-7(5).

255-X-3-.03 Supervising Counselor.

(1) General. Supervising Counselors shall be licensed professional counselors and shall have adequate training, knowledge and skill to render competent clinical supervision.

(2) (Repealed)

(3) Licensed professional counselors applying for supervising counselor status must comply with the following requirements.

(a) Experience. Document one of the following:

1. A minimum of five (5) years of full time (20+ hours per week) clinical practice as a licensed professional counselor (LPC).

(b) Training. Document successful completion of one or more of the following supervisory training programs completed not more than three (3) years prior to submitting the application for Supervising Counselor status:

1. A passing grade at an accredited college or university in an academic course specific to supervision of counselors.

2. Supervision certification by one, or more, of the following clinical associations:

(i) AAMFT - Approved Supervisor.

(ii) American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) - Diplomate.

(iii) AMHCA - Approved Supervisor.

(iv) NBCC - Approved Clinical Supervisor.

3. Any Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling (ABEC) approved supervisory training event, for a minimum of twenty-four (24) contact hours. Board approval must be requested thirty (30) or more days prior to the scheduled training event, and must be accompanied by a program description and qualifications of the instructor.

(c) Theoretical Foundation. Present a statement satisfactory to the Board, in typed form, discussing the philosophy and models of supervision, and the applicant's strengths and weaknesses as a potential supervisor. This statement should adequately demonstrate familiarity with the significant legal, ethical, and clinical issues relevant to the supervisory relationship.

(d) Peer Recommendations. The applicant must present to the Board peer recommendations from three (3) LPCs who have a current Alabama license, indicating their views on the applicant's strengths and weaknesses as a potential supervisor.

(e) Limitations of Supervision Practice. No Supervising Counselor may exceed a total of five (5) supervisees.

(f) Continuing Education Credit. One (1) contact hour of continuing education credit may be earned for each ten (10) clock hours of supervision of an associate licensed counselor. Up to, but no more than, ten (10) contact hours of continuing education credit may be earned by providing one hundred (100) clock hours of supervision of an associate licensed counselor. A Supervising Counselor may earn up to, but no more than, one (1) contact hour of continuing education credit for each ten (10) clock hours of supervision provided to a licensee who requires supervision of counseling practice as a result of a disciplinary action taken by the board. A Supervising Counselor may earn a maximum of ten (10) contact hours of continuing education credit during a two-year period for supervision provided under this regulation.

(g) Fees. There will be a non-refundable $150.00 fee for the application process for approved supervisors.

(h) Recertification. There is no process required for approved supervisors who maintain continuous licensure status as a licensed professional counselor. Licensees who fail to renew their license must petition the Board to reinstate their Supervising Counselor status.
