482-1-094-.03 Applicability And Scope. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to surplus notes issued on or after the effective date hereof.

Author: Commissioner of Insurance

Statutory Authority: Code of Ala. 1975, §§27-27-40, 27-2-7, 27-2-17, 27-27-1, 27-27-2.

History: New: December 18, 1992; effective January 1, 1993. Filed for codification in the Alabama Administrative Code by the Department of Insurance on November 14, 2005, pursuant to the Code of Ala. 1975, §27-7-43.

482-1-094-.04 Definitions. The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, shall have the following meaning, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(a) INSURER. Any domestic stock or mutual insurer, as defined in Section 27-27-1, including mutual aid associations and fraternal benefit societies, pursuant to Section 27-27-2.

(b) MINIMUM SURPLUS or "FLOOR." The amount of surplus specified in the surplus note which may not be used for payments or repayments of the surplus note and which amount must exceed the sum of (i) 10% of the face amount of the surplus note plus, (ii) the greater of the statutory minimum capital and surplus required by statute, rule, or regulation applicable to the issuing insurer, or the total stated capital and surplus of the insurer immediately before the issuance of the surplus note. The Commissioner may approve a different amount if the Commissioner is satisfied such amount is appropriate considering the financial condition of the insurer.

(c) SURPLUS NOTES. Surplus notes, also known as "surplus debentures," "contribution certificates," "surplus capital notes," and "premium income notes, bonds, or debentures," however denominated, which are financing vehicles that increase the surplus of an insurer.

Department of Insurance on November 14, 2005, pursuant to the Code of Ala. 1975, §27-7-43.

482-1-094-.05 General Provisions.

(1) The issuance of a surplus note shall not be utilized to initially capitalize an insurer, other than a mutual insurer, or a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange.

(2) The consideration received by an insurer in return for the issuance of surplus note shall be in the form of cash.

(3) An application for approval of a surplus note, filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed approved unless the insurer is otherwise notified within fifteen (15) business days after the date of filing such application.

(4) An application for approval of the payment of interest on a surplus note, according to the terms thereof, shall be deemed approved unless the insurer is otherwise notified within fifteen (15) business days after the date of filing such application. Such application may include a request for the pre-approval of periodic payments of interest extending over a period of time not exceeding twelve (12) months.

(5) An application for approval of the payment of principal of such a loan, or any portion thereof, shall not be deemed approved except upon written notice from the Commissioner.

(6) For the purposes of this rule, no application shall be deemed filed until the date all material required and sufficient to constitute a full application according to this chapter has been received by the Department.

Statutory Authority: Code of Ala. 1975, §§27-27-40, 27-2-7, 27-2-17, 27-27-1, 27-27-2.

History: New: December 18, 1992; effective January 1, 1993. Filed for codification in the Alabama Administrative Code by the Department of Insurance on November 14, 2005, pursuant to the Code of Ala. 1975, §27-7-43.

482-1-094-.07 Filing Requirements.

(1) All surplus notes issued by an insurer are subject to the prior approval of the Commissioner, regardless of amount, and shall be filed at least 30 days prior to the proposed date of the loan.

(2) The payment of interest or repayment of principal is subject to the prior approval of the Commissioner, regardless of amount, and shall be filed at least 30 days prior to the date of the proposed payment.

(3) The written application for approval of the issuance of a surplus note shall include at least the following:

(a) The nature and purpose of the transaction;

(b) The identities of all parties to the transaction;

(c) A statement that no officers or directors of a party are pecuniarily interested in the transaction (neither stock ownership in, nor serving as an officer or director of the creditor shall constitute a prohibited pecuniary interest, but should not be disclosed);

(d) A copy of any agreement between the parties relating to the transaction; and,

(e) Evidence that the transaction will not adversely affect the interests of policyholders.

(4) The written application for approval of the payment of interest or the repayment of principal shall include at least the following:

(a) The amounts of any payments between the parties to the transaction;

(b) The identities of all parties to the transaction; and

(c) Evidence that the repayment or payment is appropriate considering the financial condition of the insurer.

(5) A current financial statement dated not earlier than 60 days before the application date must be filed with the application for approval of the payment of interest or repayment of principal which demonstrates the existence of sufficient surplus in excess of the minimum surplus, and a statement by the chief executive officer of the insurer that the insurer's current total surplus is in such amount that payment or repayment as of the payment date will be only from surplus in excess of minimum surplus and will not adversely affect the insurer's current financial condition.

(6) Applications for approval of the issuance or payment of interest or the repayment of principal must meet the following standards:

- (a) The terms shall be fair and equitable;
- (b) The books, accounts, and records of each party shall be so maintained as to clearly and accurately disclose the precise nature and details of the transaction; and,
- (c) Minimum surplus and the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders following such payment of interest or repayment of principal shall be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to satisfy its financial needs.

(7) Applications for the approval of surplus notes, or for the approval of the payment of interest or repayment of principal, shall be filed with the Chief Examiner, Alabama Department of Insurance, 135 South Union Street, Montgomery, Alabama 36130-3350.
