780-X-17-.03 Registration.

(a) An appraisal management company applying for registration in Alabama may not be owned, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any person who has had an appraiser license or certificate refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked in any state unless the license or registration has been restored or reissued.

(b) An appraisal management company applying for registration in Alabama may not employ for the purposes of appraisal review, analysis, or performance evaluation any person who has ever had a registration, license, or certificate to act as an appraiser in Alabama or any other state refused, denied, canceled, or revoked unless a registration, license, or certificate has subsequently been issued or reinstated by the state in which the appraisal registration, license, or certificate had been refused, denied, canceled, or revoked.

(c) An employee of an appraisal management company, or any contractor working in any capacity on behalf of an appraisal management company, that has any involvement in the actual performance of appraisal services, or the review and analysis or completed appraisals in Alabama shall be an appraiser certified in Alabama. The license classification shall qualify the employee to perform all applicable job functions.

(d) An appraisal management company applying for registration in Alabama shall designate one principal contact for all communication between the Board and the appraisal management company.

(e) The Board shall obtain a criminal background check on all individuals who have more than ten percent (10%) ownership in an appraisal management company applying for registration. For companies owned by a sole proprietor, the individual owner shall furnish a criminal background check. For companies owned by a partnership, each partner shall furnish a background check. For any corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity, each person who has a 10% or greater ownership interest in the entity shall provide a criminal background check. Applicants shall pay all required fees required to perform this check.

(f) In addition to the application fee an applicant for registration shall post with the Board a surety bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). The bond shall be annually maintained on renewal. The bond shall be in a form as provided in the appendix of these regulations and shall accrue to the state for the benefit of a claimant against the registrant to secure the faithful performance of obligations under this article. The aggregate liability of the surety may not exceed the principal sum of the bond.

(g) An appropriate deposit of cash or security may be accepted by the Board in lieu of the required bond. The face amount of the bond shall annually be restored upon renewal of registration. Annual renewal of registration shall occur before the expiration date of the registration. Failure to timely renew registration shall result in loss of authority to operate an appraisal management company in Alabama. Request for reinstatement after expiration shall be accompanied by the annual registration fee and any late filing fee established by Board regulation.

780-X-17-.04 Registration Renewal.

(a) All registrations expire one year from the date of issuance and annually thereafter.

(b) A holder of an appraisal management company registration desiring the renewal of such registration shall apply in writing upon the form provided by the Board and shall forward the renewal fee. The renewal fee shall be two thousand dollars ($2000). Forms are available upon request to the Board. The renewal fee is not refundable under any circumstances. A renewal will be processed without the addition of a late fee if it is received by the 10\textsuperscript{th} calendar day following the due date.

(c) The Board shall establish a late renewal fee deemed necessary by the Board.

(d) Any company who acts or holds itself out as a registered appraisal management company while its appraisal management company registration is expired is subject to disciplinary action and penalties as prescribed 780-X-17-.19(a).

Author: Lisa Brooks, Executive Director, Alabama Real Estate Appraisers Board

780-X-17-.05 Expired Registration.

(a) Expired registrations may be reinstated within six (6) months after expiration upon proper application and payment to the Board of the renewal fee of two thousand dollars ($2000) plus the late filing fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each month or part thereof that the registration is lapsed, not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5000). No late filing fee will be collected when renewal is received on or before the 10\textsuperscript{th} day after registration lapses.

(b) Reinstatement is not retroactive.

780-X-17-.19 Disciplinary Action.

(a) The Board may censure, conditionally or unconditionally suspend registration, revoke registration, levy fines, or impose civil penalties not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) against any appraisal management company that the Board determines is attempting to or has performed any of the following:
(1) an act in violation of this article;

(2) a violation of any regulation adopted by the board in the interest of the public and consistent with this article; and

(3) the procurement of registration through fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit.

(b) The Board shall conduct ad judicatory proceedings for any violation in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. Ad judicatory proceedings shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following due process protections:

(1) before censuring, suspending, or revoking registration under this article, the Board shall notify the registrant in writing of any charges at least twenty (20) days before the date set for hearing and shall afford the registrant an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel;

(2) the written notice shall be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the principal contact at the address of the registrant on file with the Board;

(3) service shall be complete on mailing the written notice;

(4) the hearing on the charges shall be at a time and place prescribed by the Board, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act;

(5) the hearing may be conducted before a hearing officer designated by the Board who shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and enter an ad judicatory disposition; and

(6) the Board shall deliver or mail any findings of fact, conclusions of law, and ad judicatory dispositions to the registrant.

780-X-17-.20 Due Process For Appraisal Management Companies.

(1) Complaints. Proceedings to censure, conditionally or unconditionally suspend registration, revoke registration, levy fines, or impose civil penalties not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) against an appraisal management company may be initiated by the Board or by any person upon the filing with the Board Executive Director of an original letter of complaint which shall contain:

(a) name and address of the complaining party as well as the name and address of any appraisal management company against whom the complaint has been filed;

(b) a plain and concise statement of the facts which together indicate that the appraisal management company complained against has violated Chapter 27A, Title 34, Code of Ala. 1975, or regulations promulgated by the Board or Rules of Professional Conduct (Code of Ethics);

(c) any documentation of the alleged violations; and

(d) the signature of the complainant.

(2) Informal Disciplinary Procedure.

(a) In the event a letter of complaint is filed against an appraisal management company, or the Board determines from other information that an investigation is necessary, the procedure for investigation shall be as follows:

1. The letter of complaint or other information will be reviewed by both the Board’s Executive Director and attorney.

2. Following the initial review of the letter of complaint, the Board’s attorney, with the input and involvement of the Board’s Executive Director, will make a recommendation to the Board, as to whether probable cause exists showing that there have been probable violations of the Board’s regulations.
or statutes. A majority of those Board members present will vote whether to accept the staff recommendation.

3. If the Board finds that probable cause exists further investigation will be recommended, or the case may be set for a hearing. Where the investigation determines that the complaint or other information may constitute a violation of the Board’s regulations or statutes, the Board’s Executive Director or the attorney, without prejudice to its authority to initiate formal action, may take such action as necessary to contact the appraisal management company, complainant, or any other parties, in an effort to resolve and informally settle any dispute which may violate the Board’s regulations or statutes. Such action may include, but is not limited to, issuing a request to the appraisal management company to do, or refrain from doing, such activities as the Board may prescribe, and entering a tentative settlement agreement or releases between the appraisal management company, the Board or other parties setting out the terms of any resolution and settlement of violation(s) or potential violation(s).

4. Should the Board’s attorney enter into a tentative settlement agreement with the appraisal management company, the Board, by the vote of a majority of those present may accept the settlement agreement, reject the settlement agreement or change the terms of the agreement. Should the terms of the agreement be changed, the Board’s attorney will have the authority to settle the case in the manner instructed by the Board. All settlement agreements are subjected to Board approval.

(b) In the event a disciplinary case cannot be settled, the Board or the appraisal management company may request that the case be set for a hearing. Thereafter, a Summons and Complaint may be issued.

(3) Probable Cause. Upon the lodging of a letter of complaint the Board’s Executive Director and attorney shall prepare a recommendation to the Board as to whether probable cause exists. The Board will vote to dismiss the case, order further investigation, or direct that the case be set for hearing. The Board’s vote to set a case for a hearing is a determination that probable cause exists.

(4) Summons And Complaint.
(a) In the event the Board determines that probable cause exists for the filing of a Summons and Complaint, the Board shall instruct its counsel to prepare such.

(b) The Summons and Complaint shall be mailed certified mail return receipt requested to the address of the respondent on file with the Board and shall be mailed at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. A copy shall also be sent first class mail. Service is complete upon mailing.

(c) The Summons and Complaint shall give notice in substantial compliance with the Alabama Administrative Procedure Act, Code of Ala. 1975, §§41-22-12(b) and 34-27A-21.

(5) Pre-hearing Discovery.

(a) Pre-hearing discovery may be permitted in accordance with this regulation and §41-22-12(c), Alabama Administrative Procedures Act, Code of Ala. 1975 to the extent necessary to prevent fraud, conserve the Board’s time, prevent undue surprise at hearing and facilitate the miscarriage of justice.

(b) The attorney for the Board or the respondent may, upon application to the presiding officer conducting the hearing, obtain discovery regarding any matter not privileged which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the charge of the Board or the defense of the respondent.

(c) The discovery must be had in accordance with any terms and conditions ordered by the presiding officer conducting the hearing. The presiding officer may impose such terms and conditions as are just upon discovery in order to protect a person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression or undue burden or expense.

(6) Disciplinary Hearings.

(a) Conduct of Hearing.

1. All disciplinary hearings on contested cases before the Alabama Real Estate Appraisers Board shall be conducted by a presiding hearing officer.
2. The presiding hearing officer shall have the authority to do all things necessary to ensure that hearings are conducted in accordance with Alabama law and the Rules and Regulations of the Alabama Real Estate Appraisers Board.

3. The presiding hearing officer shall rule on all evidentiary disputes during the hearing.

4. The respondent shall plead either "guilty" or "not guilty" to the charges set forth in the complaint.

5. Each side shall be permitted to make a short opening statement.

6. The state shall present its evidence, followed by the respondent, followed by rebuttal by the state. Each witness called may be examined in the following manner:

   (i) Direct examination;
   (ii) Cross examination;
   (iii) Examination by the Board;
   (iv) Re-direct examination;
   (v) Re-cross examination;
   (vi) Re-examination;
   (vii) Rebuttal

7. Each side shall be permitted to make short closing statement summarizing the evidence presented and urging the application of relevant law to the evidence presented.

8. The Board may request from the hearing officer a proposed order(s) including findings of fact, official notice and conclusions of law. Underlying facts of record which support the findings should be cited.

9. The Board shall issue an order within thirty (30) days of the date of the final hearing, or within thirty (30) days of the hearing officer’s recommendations, which shall include findings of fact, official notice taken, and conclusions of law, stated separately. Respondent shall be delivered a copy of the order by certified mail return receipt requested, and a copy shall be mailed first class to each attorney of record.

(7) Discipline.

(a) Upon a finding that respondent has violated any enumerated provision of §34-27A, or any regulation established by the Board, the Board shall impose any or all of the disciplinary penalties set forth in Code of Ala. 1975, §§34-27A, or as otherwise provided by law.

(b) The Board may, in its discretion, permanently or temporarily stay the execution of its order. The stay may be conditioned on any provision the Board deems appropriate under the circumstances of any particular case.

(c) In determining whether a registration should be conditionally or unconditionally suspended, revoked, fined or civil penalties imposed and whether execution of the order should be stayed, and upon what conditions; the Board shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to the following:

1. the severity of the offense,
2. the danger to the public,
3. the number of repetitions of the offense,
4. the length of time since the date of violation,
5. the number of complaints filed against the respondent,
6. the length of time the respondent has operated,
7. the actual damage to the complainant and/or the public,
8. the deterrent effect of the penalty imposed,
9. any efforts or rehabilitation and
10. any other mitigating or aggravating circumstances.

(d) If a public censure is imposed, a notice will be placed in the Alabama Real Estate Appraisers Board’s newsletter.

780-X-17-.21 Appraiser Independence And Customary And Reasonable Fees.

(a) The Board, at its discretion, may contract with an objective third party, such as an educational institution, to develop a schedule of customary and reasonable fee rates of compensation for one to four residential appraisals prepared for consumer credit transactions secured by the principal dwelling of the consumer. The Board shall determine the content and scope of the survey. In no instance shall a survey include fees paid by appraisal management companies to appraisers. The results of this survey may be used as a guideline for appraisal management companies to comply with subsection (b) of this section. The Board shall consider annually consider whether a new survey should be repeated.

(b) An appraisal management company shall compensate appraisers at a rate that is customary and reasonable for appraisals being performed in the market area of the property being appraised in accordance with Section 129E(a) through (i) of the Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. §1639e(a) through (i) and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. For purposes of this rule, geographic area may be defined by zip code, city, county, metropolitan statistical area, or a combination of contiguous counties in a non- metropolitan statistical area.

1. Evidence for such fees may be established by objective third-party information such as government agency fee schedules (including any survey conducted by the Board in accordance with section (a)), academic studies, and independent private sector surveys.
2. An appraisal management company electing to compensate fee appraisers on any basis other than an established fee schedule as described in subsection 1. shall, at a minimum, review the following factors on each assignment made, and make appropriate adjustments to recent rates paid in the relevant geographic market necessary to ensure that the amount of compensation is reasonable:

(i) the type of property for each appraisal performed;

(ii) the scope of work for each appraisal performed;

(iii) the time in which the appraisal services are required to be performed;

(iv) fee appraiser qualifications;

(v) fee appraiser experience and professional record; and

(vi) fee appraiser work quality.

3. An appraisal management company shall maintain written documentation that describes or substantiates all methods, factors, variations, and differences used to determine the customary and reasonable fee for appraisal services conducted in the geographic market of the appraisal assignment.

4. An appraisal management company shall maintain records of how it determined the customary and reasonable rate of compensation paid for each appraisal assignment.

(c) An appraisal management company shall separately state to the client all of the following:

1. The fees paid to an appraiser for appraisal services.

2. The fees charged by the appraisal management company for services associated with the management of the appraisal process, including procurement of the appraiser's services.

(d)(1) An appraisal management company shall not prohibit any appraiser who is part of an appraiser panel from recording the fee that the appraiser was paid by the appraisal management company for the performance of the appraisal within the appraisal report that is submitted by the appraiser to the appraisal management company.

2. An appraisal management company shall not include any fees for appraisal management services performed by the company in the amount the company reports as charges for the actual completion of an appraisal by the appraiser.
